

Vendor Contract and Terms For FOOD VENDORS

Leon County's Annual 4th of July Celebration Funtier Days Centerville, TX

Event Date July 4th, 2022

Setup Time: All vendors should arrive with enough time to be entirely setup by 7:30am. If your food truck is a trailer that is parked by your personal vehicle, please get with me for special arrangements and take into consideration the amount of room you will need and the space size you have reserved.

Please be aware the vendor area will be very crowded with other vendors and you may not be able to drive your vehicle to your booth space during setup time. Come earlier if you think this is going to be a problem. You are welcome to setup on Sunday, July 3rd after 5:00pm. No security is provided.

No vendor vehicles will be allowed in the vendor area between 8:00am and 3:00pm

Thank you for your cooperation.

Festival Time: 9:00 a.m. until 3:00 p.m.

Move Out Time: After close of festival at 3:00pm.

Exception: Severe weather conditions, excluding normal temperatures.

Cancellation Policy: Refunds are only granted if cancellation is received in writing at least 45 days prior to the Event or if the Event is cancelled by local government. No refunds due to weather. This is an outside event and is held rain or shine.

Please try to return completed application and payment by June 15, 2022 (self-addressed stamped envelope enclosed)

Booth reservations are based upon the application and payment date received. First Come, first served.
